TEACHERS ENJOY SOCIAL AFFAIRS

Dance, Card Parties and Banquet
Relieve Monotony of Day Sessions of the Annual Institute. Commonwealth Quartet Concert.

Teachers attending the sessions of the institute have enjoyed several social events arranged to relieve the monotony of the day sessions and, in addition to the regular entertainments provided by the management, there have been quite a few affairs "on the side."

Wednesday evening a number of the teachers held a dance in the Armory on Carlisle street following the concert in the chapel. Local musicians played for the dancing. The evening previous the Shippensburg Normal reunion was held and there have been a few card parties to occupy the attention of the teachers when the sessions did not require their attention.

Wednesday evening's concert by the Commonwealth Quartet drew the largest house of the week to the chapel. The main room and gallery had practically every seat taken and the annex held many more. As the quartet had appeared here only two years ago this was sufficient proof of their popularity. The numbers were all well received.

The attendance at the day sessions continues good. This year's institute draws more to the chapel than last and almost as many are now attending the sessions as during the years when Xavier Hall was used. The practice of having certain hours of admission prevents the annoyance of people entering and leaving during lectures and the arrangements are most satisfactory.

Dr. Ellis continued his instruction on Wednesday afternoon with a talk on "Moral Training." Prof. Warren spoke of the rapid growth of pupils during their adolescence and the care teachers should take to understand their difficulties on this account. He called his lecture "On Troubled Waters" and followed it this morning with another, "On Calmer Seas," in which he spoke of difficulties to be met and overcome as the pupils advance in age and discretion. Dr. Ellis' subject was "The Master Teacher." Rev. H. A. Rindard, the college Y. M. C. A. secretary, conducted the devotional exercises.

MORE DEER KILLED

Paul A. Martin, of the Citizens Trust Company, is the second Gettysburgian to kill a deer this season. He brought down a six pronged 185 pound buck this morning. Mr. Martin is a member of the Cashdown camp. William B. Flemming, of the Monterey club got one earlier in the season, as noted in these columns.

Jacob R. Wile, of Mont Alto hunting club, Tuesday afternoon, shot probably the largest deer yet brought down this season in this section. It had six prongs and weighed 200 pounds. Mr. Wile got the big buck between Caledonia park and Huckleberry Ridge, and he and the Mont Alto club are very proud of the game.

Lester H. Marshall, William Whorley and John Minick of the Locked Antlers hunting club have each shot a buck.

C. W. Bumgardner, a member of the Bendersville Club, shot a four pronged buck weighing about 125 pounds.

EXPECT BUSY SALE SEASON

Opening of Spring Sale Season Several Months Distant but Large Number of Dates are already Announced. Many Others.

From prospects this far in advance it is very evident that the spring sale season of 1912 in Adams County is going to be fully as busy as in past years. Though several months are yet to elapse before the opening of the season a large number of farmers have already chosen their auctioneers. The latter have many requests for dates on hand in addition to those which have been determined upon and during the next few weeks numbers of farmers will make final selection.

This always depends largely upon the sales booked for their neighborhood so that there may be no conflict and two sales held close to each other on the same day. The list of sale dates which have been turned in to this office appears below and will be of use in arranging for the sales for which no dates have yet been selected. As other dates are selected we would request that they be sent in and note of them will be made in these columns and also on our list which we keep open for consultation at all times. The list given below will not appear again until a few weeks before the opening of the season but new dates will be mentioned as booked.

START FILING ACCOUNTS

A number of candidates at the recent election have already complied with the law and have filed their expense accounts in the office of Clerk of the Courts Jacob F. Thomas. Up to this time practically all who have filed, report campaign expenses of less than $50.00 and none of the candidates who did extensive campaigning has appeared. The law requires all, whether successful or not, whether aspiring to county, borough or township offices, to file their accounts and there will probably be several hundred to meet the requirements of the law within the next few weeks.

FRUIT GROWERS BEING WARNED

Men Appear Selling Preparation of Cyanide of Potassium, Expected to Kill San Jose Scale. Ernest F. Peirce Issues Warning.

Ernest F. Peirce, state orchard inspector for Adams and York counties, issues a warning to all fruit growers saying that as a matter of precaution, farmers and all other owners of fruit trees should be on their guard at this season of the year for certain individuals traversing this part of the country professing to cure the fruit trees of the scale.

These men go from farm to farm selling capsules which they insert under the bark of the tree, the ingredients of which, they claim, will be taken up by the circulation of the tree and in this manner kill the scale. The contents of these capsules consist of cyanide of potassium, one of the deadliest poisons known. Thus far more attention has been paid to eastern sections of the state, particularly in Montgomery county, where it is claimed more than $1,000 has been taken from the farmers and orchard growers, who were easily influenced to buy. The capsules have been selling at $1 a dozen.

In several sections of the country experiments with these capsules have been conducted, but in every case recorded the trees undergoing the test have first been sprayed, so that in case the scale was killed, it was not the result of the cyanide of potassium, but credited to the spray solution. A dangerous phase of this so-called cure lies in the fact that if the contents of these capsules once take effect on the tree and taken up by its circulation in the course of time when the tree comes to bear the fruit will necessarily savor of the poison and the one eating it will more than likely come to harm by poisoning, if not killed.

Various experts on the subject of trees have tested this capsule preparation and have found it to be a fraud. Mr. Peirce has also tested the capsule and pronounced it a fake and warns the farmers and tree growers in York and Adams counties to be on the alert for these fakirs and thus save money as well as the trees. It is more than likely that if these individuals still persist in faking the farmers, that means will be taken to round up the perpetrators and deal with them according to law.

TRIED TO ROB THE RING BOTTLE

David Wright, colored, is in the Cumberland County jail charged with robbing the safe of his employer of about $40, and probably more. Wright, who is also known as Bertram was employed by A. H. B. Ring, son of J. A. Ring, at the Carlisle bottling. Money had been missed from a drawer in the safe. Detective Bentley was consulted and he suggested a trap be set for Wright. Tuesday night Wright walked into the trap. About 9.30 o'clock the younger Mr. Ring and his brother-in-law, Dr. Treibley, were in hiding, saw Wright at the safe and pounced upon him. He showed fight but was soon cowed by a revolver, and in the hands of the police. Officer Bentley served a warrant issued by Justice Hughes and Wright is in jail.

There is not much else for him to do than to plead guilty. When Officer Bentley said to him, "Dave, why did you do this," the darkie replied that he wanted to be discharged for some time past and he thought this a pretty safe way to bring it about. The officer told him he would be discharged all right. He is a man of about 40 years of age. The first robbery occurred November 10, at which time it is believed about $40 was taken. It is not believed he got any money Tuesday night.

CALL JOHN D. TO TELL OF ORE DEAL

Recital of How Original Owners Were Crushed.

ALSO ACCUSES REV. GATES

Merritt Sent Word to Oil King That "When I Steal For a Living I Will Steal For Myself"—Then Lost His Property.

Washington, Nov. 23.—The house committee investigating the steel trust will invite John D. Rockefeller to tell how he got hold of ore and railroad property valued at $700,000,000 and now owned by the steel corporation.

This declaration was made by Representative Stanley, chairman of the probes, after the committee had heard Leonidas Merritt, with a bitterness that lent emphasis to his utterances, and at times fairly beside himself with pent-up rage, tell a personal narrative of his dealings with Rockefeller and how the latter had forced him out of business in Minnesota.

With the expressed determination of the chairman to have Mr. Rockefeller appear, the committee adjourned not to meet again until after Congress convenes.

The lands and railroad properties involved were controlled and largely owned a few years ago by Alfred and Leonidas Merritt. The former declared and the latter reiterated that the "oil king" got the properties by calling a loan of less than $1,000,000 in the panic days of 1893, although the Merritts said that they had been assured by Rev. Gates, chief almoner now for Rockefeller, that they would not be pushed for the loans.

Alfred Merritt also declared his belief that Rockefeller had closed the financial world to him so that he could not redeem his properties within the year allowed by Rockefeller.

It also was declared that the Rev. Gates, who figured in the witness' account as the intermediary of the "oil king," who brought about the crushing of Merritt and his brother, Alfred Merritt, would be summoned as a witness.

Mr. Merritt declared that it was after he had turned down a proposition from Mr. Rockefeller, which he characterized as "stealing," that Rockefeller called upon him to pay a million dollar loan and brought about his downfall. The proposition, Mr. Merritt said, came through Rev. Gates, Mr. Rockefeller's almoner.

The witness said that Gates outlined to him how Mr. Rockefeller and his interests could throw him and his brother out of the company to protect other interests, but as they had borne the "burden and heat" of the day, he believed that they should reap the benefits.

"Gates said Mr. Rockefeller would rather deal with us," Merritt continued, "and if we would deal with him we could remain in the company and be taken care of. In order to do that he said we would have to do the will of Rockefeller. I listened in amazement when he said that if Rockefeller protected us the stocks of others would be thrown down, and he mentioned the names of several men. My brother, who was present, turned to Mr. Gates and said:

Called Deal "Stealing."

"Mr. Gates, we've got laws in our country. To do what you want to do would land us in jail. Mr. Rockefeller with his $70,000,000 can't make us do that."

"I turned to Gates and said: 'Mr. Gates, you came from John D. Rockefeller. Go back to John D. Rockefeller and tell him that when I steal for a living I will steal for myself.'"

"It was soon after this interview that I was notified that we would have twenty-four hours to take up our Rockefeller loan. There I was with all my stocks up—stocks that I have never seen since. I didn't have money enough to get home with. Gates seemed to be amazed to think that I would not do what he wanted me to do and at one time told me I would have to walk home on the ties."

Merritt said that he had never been able to realize just how Rockefeller took over his stock.

"I know I went to New York thinking we were worth several millions. After it was over I was left without a cent. I hadn't even fare home, and when I got home my people wouldn't have enough for car tickets. I was a wreck physically and mentally for a long time. My brother, Cassius, a stronger man than I, died from the shock of the affair."

Representative Beall asked Merritt whether he understood when he put up his collateral with Rockefeller that it was only for a short time, and he said that he so understood.

"I was assured all the time," said Merritt, "that the collateral would be up only a short time. Gates told me that. Gates was my Rockefeller."

"What was the value of your securities put up to cover that Rockefeller loan?" asked Mr. Beall. "About ten million," Merritt answered.

"Then your negotiations with Rockefeller lasted only a few months?"

"Yes."

"At the end of that time did you own the railroad?"

"No."

"What did you have?"

"I had a chance to walk from New York to Duluth on the ties. That was all I had in sight."

BEATTIE SAYS HE IS READY TO DIE

Gov. Mann Declares Reports of Clemency Cruel.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 23. — "I am ready to die. Perhaps it is better thus. A respite would prolong the agony of my father. I am prepared to meet my maker."

These words are attributed to Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., by Rev. J. J. Fix, his spiritual adviser, who delivered to the condemned man the ultimatum of Governor Mann's declining a respite.

Rev. Mr. Fix said the prisoner had not confessed to him, but if he were guilty he hoped he would confess and not go to his death with a lie upon his lips, as that would be a sacrifice.

"If ever a man was reborn, that man is Henry Clay Beattie, Jr.," said Rev. Benjamin Dennis, who has alternated with Rev. Mr. Fix in counseling the wife murderer. "His whole nature has most certainly been changed."

continued Mr. Dennis, "and in my opinion the worst is already over with the young man."

Governor Mann declared the renewed reports about additional appeals to him, as cruel. "They are cruel, for their necessary effect would be to fill the prisoner's breast with false hopes which are doomed to disappointment."

BRYAN IN SHIPWRECK

Passenger on Steamer That Runs on Rocks Off Samana Island.

New York, Nov. 23. — William J. Bryan, his wife and grandchild and eighty-four other passengers on the steamship Prinz Joachim, ashore on the rocks off Samana Island, will be transferred to the Ward line steamships Segurana and Vigilancia.

There is little apprehension felt for the safety of the vessel or the passengers, the line officials said, but in view of the delay it was deemed best to get the passengers off the ship and send them on their voyage.

As soon as the transfer is made the passengers will be taken back to Nassau, which is in the immediate neighborhood, and the journey will be continued from that point. The vessel to complete the trip has not yet been selected.

The Segurana left Santiago after the accident and proceeded at top speed to the Prinz Joachim. She came alongside the wrecked vessel. Later advices from the scene of the wreck are to the effect that the sea is easy.

ROYAL CHAPLAIN HUNTED BY POLICE

Rev. Farrar, Who Married Philadelphia Girl, is Missing.

BIG SCANDAL IS EXPECTED

Is Dismissed From His Post in London and His Disappearance Follows an Investigation.

London, Nov. 23.—Announcement of the dismissal of the Rev. Frederick Percival Farrar, who married Miss Nora Davis, sister of Richard Harding Davis, from his post in the royal household is expected to be followed by a scandal.

Rev. Farrar, who is the son of Canon Farrar, and who for several years has been chaplain to King George and Queen Mary and honorary chaplain to Dowager Queen Alexandra, is missing, following the issuance of a warrant for his arrest.

Charges of drunkenness and immorality have been made against the deposed king's chaplain, and they are now being investigated by the bishop of Norwich.

The official London Gazette contained notice of the dismissal of Mr. Farrar from the royal household, and the warrant followed. It was reported on good authority that an investigation into Mr. Farrar's private conduct has been going on for some time and that revelations of a sensational nature are imminent.

The deposed clergyman was married in London on July 7 last to Miss Davis, daughter of the late L. Clark Davis, of Philadelphia. The wedding was one of the society events of the season.

Only last Sunday the dismissed chaplain preached in Sandringham church, the congregation including Dowager Queen Alexandra and her daughter, Queen Maude of Norway, the Prince of Wales and other members of the royal family.

Mr. Farrar has long had access to the exclusive circles of the court, and his presence was courted by many rich Americans who sought favor with English society. When he was married presents were sent by King George, Queen Mary, Dowager Queen Alexandra and other members of royalty.

The wedding of Miss Nora Davis to Rev. Frederick Percival Farrar was the culmination of a romance which began in Philadelphia when the domestic chaplain to King George was a reporter on the Public Ledger.

George W. Childs and Canon Farrar were great friends. The Childses had no children. Canon Farrar had eight. When the noted English clergyman was visiting in the United States, about twenty years ago, he went to Philadelphia and was the guest of Mr. Childs.

"I wish you would give me one of your boys," said Mr. Childs. "You can easily spare one son to a man who has none."

Mr. Childs' request found a ready response, and in 1892 Frederick Percival Farrar was taken into the home of Mr. Childs as a member of the family. He went to work as a reporter, but was soon made private secretary to L. Clarke Davis, who was then managing editor of the paper.

The young Englishman made many friends on the paper. Farrar was invited to the Davis home, and there he met Miss Nora Davis. They became great friends, but the romance which was then begun was halted by a call from England, which young Farrar, who was then twenty years old, could not refuse. Canon Farrar asked his son to come home and study for the ministry.

His career up to that time was successful. But he never forgot Miss Davis. Mr. Childs died, then Canon Farrar and then L. Clarke Davis. Mr. Farrar is about forty years old and his wife is a few years his junior.

Bears Wandered Into Town.

Altoona, Pa., Nov. 23.—Three bears father, mother and son, ambled into Bellwood, eight miles east of here, and terrified the population, although they made no hostile demonstration. In a few minutes a bear hunting party of a hundred citizens was organized to the invaders, scenting danger, took to the mountains. As they were crossing a field on the L. F. Reight farm, Milton Reight fired at them and the father bear dropped over dead. The mother and son escaped.

THINK ASSAILANT DEMENTED

Coatesville Chief of Police Investigates Many Clues in Assault Case.
Coatesville, Pa., Nov. 23. — After running down a number of clues that took him to many points south of the borough, Chief of Police Umsted has failed to find one that warranted an arrest in connection with the attempted assault on Mrs. James Campbell on the Black Horse hill road, and later the attempt to hold up Mrs. Fred Russell near Buck Run.
Chief Umsted has not given up the hope of capturing the colored man, as he still has some clues that he thinks will bring developments. He is depending largely on the minute description of the man which is known to the police and which is expected to result in his capture as soon as he ventures out where he can be seen.
Accompanied by some officers Chief Umsted searched the neighborhood of Buck Run, but was unable to learn anything of the whereabouts of the assailant. It is not known that he was seen by anyone after his attempt to hold up Mrs. Russell.
Some people who have followed the cases carefully suggest that the colored man may be demented.

AGED SOCIETY MAN WEDS HIS NURSE

Van Rensselaer Wins Bride in Sick Room.

Pittsfield, Mass., Nov. 23.—A. Cortlandt Van Rensselaer, a member of the Van Rensselaer family of New York city, was married here to Miss Mabel Louise Watts, a trained nurse, of North Adams.
The wedding is the culmination of a romance which began early last summer, when Miss Watts was called to Fair Acres, the Van Rensselaer home at Stockbridge, to nurse the bridegroom during a severe illness. While Mr. Rensselaer was convalescing he rented a furnished house in Pittsfield and Miss Watts remained with him until his complete recovery. Then he proposed to her, according to their friends, and was accepted.
Mr. Van Rensselaer is about sixty years old and his bride less than half that age. He has lived in Stockbridge for many years and is prominent socially.
The marriage took place in the Methodist parsonage. Miss Watts is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon F. Watts and was graduated from the Bishop Training School for Nurses in Pittsfield.

ON "SQUAWKERS' LIST"

Souderton, Pa., Man Lost $2150 in Get Rich Scheme.
New York, Nov. 23.—More messages relating to the objections of customers were read at the trial of George Graham Rice and other members of the Sheffels & Co. on charges of swindling through their chain of alleged bucket-shops.
From the "Squawkers" list the district attorney read the name of William Souder, of Souderton, Pa. "Getting very peevish; wants his money back," was the notation opposite his name.
Souder had paid $2150 for 20,000 shares of Cobalt Central, and after demanding delivery for three weeks he finally got the stock by having another New York broker collect it, the testimony showed.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Representative John Hall Stephens, of Vernon, Tex., and Mrs. Lisette Keenan, of this city, were married here. The congressman, who was a widower, is sixty-three years old. His bride is twenty-two years his junior.

Its wonderful popularity, however, has led unscrupulous dealers to offer imitations which act unsatisfactorily. Therefore, when buying, to get its beneficial effects, always note the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package of the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

BANKERS FAVOR ALDRICH PLAN

Speakers at Convention Urge Monetary Reform.

DON'T CENTRALIZE POWER

Members of National Bankers' Association Are Urged to Work For Adoption of Plan.

New Orleans, Nov. 23.—General approval of the so-called Aldrich plan for the reformation of the national monetary system was given by prominent bankers, who addressed the second day's session of the thirty-seventh annual convention of the American Bankers' association.

The members were urged to use their influence in securing the plan's adoption by congress.

It is predicted on the face of a "straw vote" that Arthur Reynolds, of Des Moines, now treasurer of the association, will become chairman of the executive council. There are contestants whom Mr. Reynolds must sweep out of the way, however, before his election is assured. If he succeeds his place as treasurer probably will be filled by J. Fletcher Farrell, of Chicago.

Most of the speakers discussed their topics from a technical standpoint. James B. Forgan, president of the First National bank, of Chicago, talking about "The Mobilization and Control of the Reserves of the Country."

The proposed plan for a National Reserve association would place the banking and currency system of the United States in the front ranks of those of the leading nations of the world, said Mr. Forgan.

"How different from our method of meeting an emergency is that employed by European banks," he said. "In every country in Europe whose banking system the national monetary commission investigated, it was found that the practice is just the reverse of ours. They meet emergencies by expansion of credit; we by contracting it. They increase their loans; we curtail ours. They have facilities for so doing; we have none."

Mr. Forgan closed with a resume of the evils attendant upon the present financial system of this country and a prediction that the "National Reserve association would become the largest, the strongest, the safest and the best financial institution in the world."

George M. Reynolds, president of the Commercial and Continental bank, of Chicago, talked about "Rediscounts and Book Credits."

"If the proposed National Reserve association plan becomes a law it will provide an institution which will be able to extend credit in proportion to all the reasonable needs of business in this country and at the same time safeguard against over-expansion of credit," he said. "While the proposed plan is not a wide departure from the present system, it would correct the present plan's weaknesses and furnish the machinery for the natural ebb and flow of business; while it provides for centralizing the resources of the country it does not provide for centralizing the power."

Other speakers were President Schurman, of Cornell university, and Frank G. Anderson.

Gray Hair Makes You Look Old

Use Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and Your Gray Hair Will Quickly Vanish.

Gray hair is a mark of age, and nothing that can be said as to its beauty will offset the disadvantages of this mark of age set upon your brow. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy darkens the hair and restores it to its youthful beauty. Our grandmothers and their grandmothers before them used sage and sulphur for darkening their hair. Nothing has ever been found more effective for this purpose than these two time-honored remedies, but Wyeth, a modern chemist, has combined the two with other ingredients, which makes a delightful dressing for the hair, and which not only removes every trace of dandruff but promotes the growth of the hair. It also stops the hair from falling out, and makes it beautiful.

All druggists are authorized to refund the money if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair and don't resort to old-time hair dyes. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist to-day, and notice the difference in your hair after a few days' use. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Sold in every town in America by leading druggists for 50 cents a bottle. Read Miss Kruger's letter.

"PARISIAN SAGE is the best hair grower and beautifier and dandruff cure. I lost all my hair through typhoid fever. I was almost baldheaded and my scalp was as sore as could be. I tried everything, but in vain. Finally I tried PARISIAN SAGE, and after using one bottle my hair started to grow, and has grown three or four inches inside of two months. I advise every woman who wants beautiful hair to use PARISIAN Sage." Miss Meta M. Kruger, Brownstown, Minn.
